AIA Annuity Sure

(Tax Deductible Annuity Insurance Plan)

AIA Annuity Sure an annuity insurance plan for a happy retirement.

Start your retirement planning with AIA Annuity Sure, the financial planning assistant that you can choose the premium payment period that matches your financial plan, enabling you to have regular cash flows for retirement spending, relief you financial anxiety, and live a happy retirement life. Moreover, the premiums paid for annuity insurance are eligible for personal income tax deductions of up to 200,000 Baht.¹

Two options of premium payment period.

Choose either 9-years premium payment period or payment until reaching the age of 60 years.

Issued age: 20-50 years for 9-years premium payment period; or 20-55 years for premium payment until the age of 60 years.

Receive annuity benefit of 15% of the sum assured² every year until the age of 90 years.

The first annuity will be paid on the policy anniversary date following the 60th birthday of the Insured.

Eligible for up to 200,000 Baht of tax deductions.¹

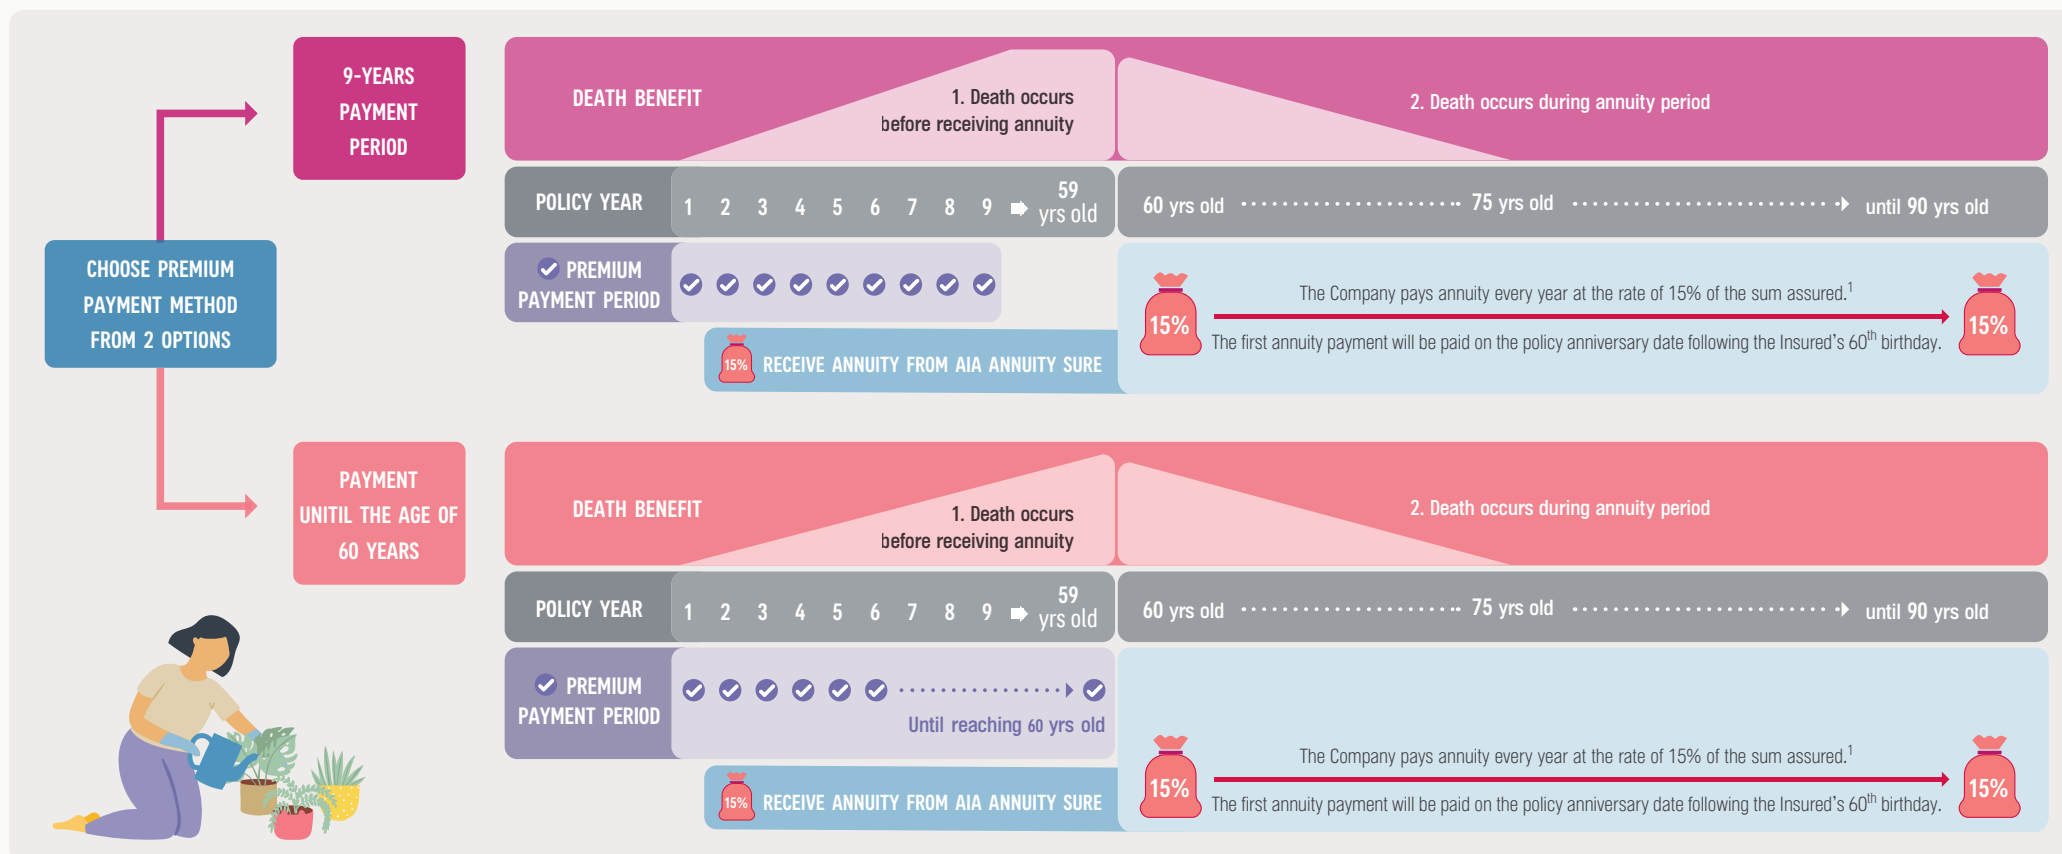

¹ The premium of an annuity life insurance plan (not including the premium paid for riders) is tax deductible for a maximum amount of 200,000 Baht, but not exceeding 15% of total assessable income for that tax year. However, this allowance, together with the contribution to a registered provident fund, the Government Pension Fund, the teacher's welfare fund under the law governing private schools, the National Savings Fund, and the investment in retirement mutual funds and super savings funds, may not exceed 500,000 Baht. Such conditions are in accordance with the meets the conditions stipulated in the Notifications of the Director-General of the Revenue Department on Income Tax (No. 194, 261, 362 and 386).

² The amount of sum assured as appeared on the Policy Information Page or the endorsement (if any).

- The Applicant should study and have thorough understanding about the information contained in the sales sheet before making decision to purchase the insurance. After receiving the policy, please study the terms and conditions specified in the policy.
- The Insured has the duty to provide true information in applying for insurance. Any concealment of truth or declaration of false statements may cause the insurance company to avoid the insurance contract and refuse to pay the claims under the insurance contract.
- The terms and conditions of the coverage will be specified in the policy issued to the policyholder.

DEATH BENEFIT

1. In the case that death occurs before receiving the annuity payment

(before the policy anniversary date on which the Insured reaches the age of 60 years), The Company shall pay the following benefit, whichever is higher :

- 110% of the total basic premiums that have been received by the Company.
- If the Insured dies during the policy year, the premium shall be calculated based on a full year basis.
- Cash surrender value.

2. In the case that death occurs during the annuity period

(from the policy anniversary date on which the Insured reaches the age of 60 years until the policy anniversary date on which the Insured reaches the age of 90 years), the Company shall pay the following benefit, whichever is higher :

- The total basic premiums that have been received by the Company deducted by the total amount of annuity payment that have been paid by the Company to the Insured;
- If the Insured dies before having received the annuity payment for 15 years, the Company shall pay the present value of the annuity according to the Present Value Table of Annuities and the amount of annuity payment that have yet to be paid in the year the Insured dies (if any).

BENEFITS ENTITLED TO THE INSURED SURVIVING THE ANNUITY PERIOD

The Company shall pay the annuity once a year at the rate of 15% of the sum assured¹ with the first annuity payment being paid on the policy anniversary date on which the Insured reaches the ages of 60 years until the policy anniversary date on which the Insured reaches the age of 90 years.

Upon starting to receive the annuity payment, the Insured has no right to surrender the policy. In the case that the Insured has debt obligations under the policy on the policy anniversary date the Insured is entitled to the first annuity payment, the Company shall deduct the debt obligations under the policy from the existing cash surrender value and use that amount to recalculate the sum assured in order to pay the annuity benefit according to the insurance period. The amount of annuity payment will decrease proportionately according to the endorsement.

Example

Khun TriamProm, aged 40 years old, a company employee holding the position of Department Director, and the head of the family. He has started retirement planning but has the feeling that the financial products that he has invested will still be inadequate for his retirement spending. Therefore, he is looking for more saving assistants to generate regular income for him to nurture himself in the future especially after retirement.

The AIA Agent recommends him an assistant for long-term saving in the form of insurance plan called AIA Annuity Sure, which requires premium payment until the age of 60 years (Installment Premium Payment), with the sum assured amounting to 1,700,000 Baht. The Insured is also entitled to continually receive a guaranteed annuity payment of 255,000 Baht every year from the policy anniversary date following the 60th birthday of the Insured until the Insured reaches the age of 90 years. Moreover, the premiums paid for the annuity insurance are tax deductible.
